

David's 2013 Christmas Quiz

"Tom, Dick or Harry - a Pleb's Party"

Plebs were in the news this year, and we decided that our party guests should all be suitably named. We were entertained by seven funny men (all born before 1940). One of them left early; the other six remained for dinner, one seated at each table. Can you identify the entertainers and the guests who are seated alphabetically? And can you then direct the funny men to the correct seats, designated (E)? Who left early? (And Who is Number One - Explain!)

1. Tom
 2. Dick
